Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Job's Daughters is an organization comprised of young women ages 10 to 20 and are related to Master Masons; and,

Whereas, Job's Daughters has 18 Bethels in the state of South Dakota with a membership of over 200; and,

Whereas, Job's Daughters is an organization to prepare young women to be active young leaders in religious, civic and community activities, as well as fraternal and social organizations, and in all cases funded on their own; and,

Whereas, The teachings are based on the Book of Job 42:15, "And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job, and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren"; and,

Whereas, Job's Daughters promotes higher education by offering scholarships to our members; and,

Whereas, Job's Daughters is an organization of kids helping kids by raising funds for HIKE (Hearing Impaired Kids Endowment) to provide financial assistance with hearing devices to families of hearing impaired children in our state; and,

Whereas, Job's Daughters are taught to respect their parents, teachers and the elderly, the love of home, family and country and they are strong believers in morality and set a high standard for their companions; and,

Whereas, June 7, 2007 has been set aside as the day of the formal opening of the 63rd Annual Grand Session of South Dakota Job's Daughters in the Capital City of Pierre:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 7, 2007, as in South Dakota, and call upon the people of this state to recognize the importance of sustained community involvement in safeguarding the lives of our youngest and most precious citizens.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State